A ROUSER!

And One of the Biggest Conventions Ever Held
by St. Clair County Republicans.

THE WINNING TICKET.

It is Strong From Head to Foot and in all Respects
a Good One.

(Port Huron News.)

The republican county convention to nominate a county ticket and a state senator was called to order at 11:30 by Chairman McIlwain, of the county committee. Mr. McIlwain said that judging from the great interest taken in all republican gatherings this was a republican year. He then introduced John W. Twiss, of this city, as temporary chairman and Frank Sutton, of Marine City, as temporary secretary.

Mr. Twiss made a neat speech and a good hit in saying that conditions in this country were such, that the voter would hereafter vote through his stomach instead of his head.

On motion the following committees
were appointed:
Credentials—John L. Black, Port
Huron; Robert Falkerts, Clay; Daniel
Foley, Emmet.

Permanent organization and order
of business—F. E. Beard, Port Huron; Peter Sweetser, Port Huron township;
Robert Lothian, Brockway.

The convention then adjourned until 1:30 to meet at the Baer block.

A huge crowd filled the floor and standing room went up on the market.

Horace G. Snover, the nominee for congress, was present and was called on for a speech. He thought the big assembly looked more like a mass meeting than a convention. Hoped St. Clair would nominate the right men and then stand by them. Snover made a few remarks and retired amid cheers.

The committee on credentials then reported and the report was accepted.

The first ward contest from Port Huron was a lamentable failure, not even showing up before the committee.

The committee on permanent organization reported that the temporary officers be made permanent. That the convention proceed to the election of county officers as provided for in the statutes. Namely, sheriff, clerk, treasurer, register of deeds, prosecuting attorney, surveyors, coroners and a state senator.

The chairman on motion appointed
the following tellers:

William Mulford, Port Huron; Patrick Fox, Greenwood; and Fred Seheuericker, St. Clair.

The candidates were then presented for sheriff as follows: J. Hull, Brockway; Henry T. Dust, Cottrellville; Haas Maines, George E. Mallory,
Henry J. Kuhn, Adam Scott.

The anticipated result of the first ballot was chaos. No one dared to express an opinion as to who would lead.

The ballot for sheriff resulted as follows:

Mallory.....47
Maines.....37
Kuhn.....33
Hull.....24
Scott.....13
Dust.....11
Scattering.....1

Total.....166

After the announcement of the first ballot the howling was deafening, but good natured, and amid great excitement the convention proceeded to take a second ballot for sheriff.

The result of the second ballot was
as follows:

Mallory.....54
Maines.....41
Kuhn.....26
Hull.....18
Scott.....15
Dust.....13
Total.....166

A third ballot was then taken 84 being necessary to choice, and resulted
as follows:

Mallory.....81
Maines.....38
Kuhn.....27
Hull.....10
Scott.....9
Total.....166

Mallory having received within three of a nomination it was evident that he would be nominated on the next ballot. Mr. Hull withdrew his name and the result of the fourth ballot was
as follows:

Mallory.....113
Maines.....36
Kuhn.....11
Scott.....5

Total.....166

Mallory's nomination was made unanimous amid tremendous cheers.

William Mason was then nominated by acclamation for clerk.

On motion the convention then proceeded to a ballot for treasurer, George W. Carnan, Stephen Moore and Emerson D. Thatcher being placed in nomination. The first ballot resulted as follows:

Carnan.....69
Moore.....84
Thatcher.....10

Moore was then given the nomination unanimously.

D. N. Rannels was then placed in nomination by Frank Wolcott for register of deeds. William O'Keefe championed the presentation of William Stewart and a ballot resulted as
follows:

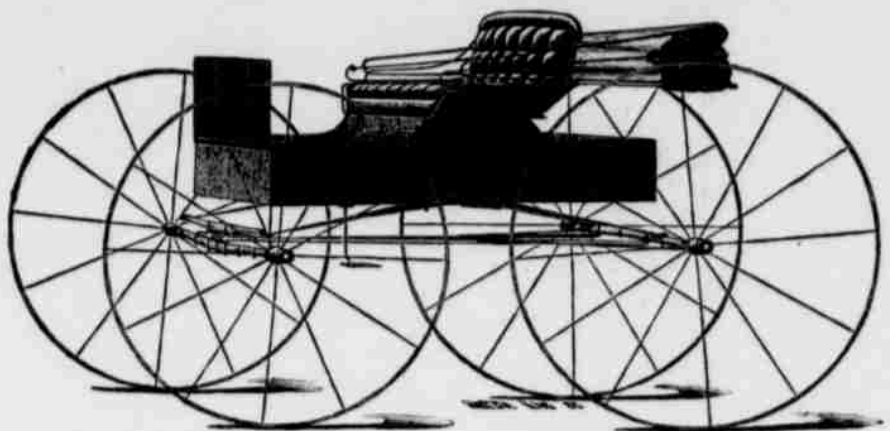

Rannels.....122
Stewart.....39

"Uncle Dan's" nomination was then made unanimous.

W. W. Allen then placed in nomination Lincoln Avery, Daniel Webster
then named J. B. McIlwain, and a ballot was taken.

Paldi was named for surveyor. Alex
Moore and A. R. Stowell were selected for circuit court commissioners. Ed.
Twiss withdrawing in a neat speech.

A. B. Carlisle and Dr. Volmar were then nominated by acclamation for coroners.

W. J. Mulford renominated R. E.
French for state senator and the convention made it unanimous.

The convention then adjourned.

NOTES.

Before the convention was called to order, an individual, who it would be charitable to say had imbibed several swigs of Butler street bug juice, came into the convention hall and began calling Frank Sutton, of the Marine City Republican, a string of epithets
not generally used in a Sunday school.

Sutton, as became a newspaper man and a gentleman, remained silent. The jaggy individual's name, as near as could be learned was J. J. Stinks, of Marine City. Cries of put him out were heard and the fresh individual made his sneak.
